

H.W

Mention the points of difference between communicable and non-communicable

Date _____
Page _____

Communicable diseases	Non-communicable diseases
-----------------------	---------------------------

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1) Communicable diseases are the diseases which pass from one individual to another individual. | 1) Non-communicable diseases are are they are not passed on from one person to diseases another. |
| 2) They are generally caused by some bacteria, viruses viruses or any other pathogens. | 2) non-communicable diseases are night blindness, beriberi, scurvy, rickets rickets and anaemia. |

Example - Malaria, AIDS etc.