

Home Assignment

- Q1) When organisms are consumed, approximately 10% of this energy in the food is mixed into their flesh and is available for next trophic level.
- Q2) Ecosystems have a lot of different living organisms that interact with each other. The living organism in an ecosystem can be divided into three categories: Producers, consumers and decomposers.