

Hot questions

Q. Think and answer

1. We always need to store liquids in containers. Why?

Ans. We always need to store liquids in containers because molecules in a liquid are loosely packed and can move around and flow. Liquids does not have a fixed shape they take the shape of the container in which they are poured.