

H.W

1) Write a paragraph on Shankar's meet with lion.

Ans- After his dinner, Shankar lit the lamp in the station office and started writing his diary. He planned to sleep there. The door of the room was made up of glass and was not even locked! Then, he saw a lion near the door, a slight push could have opened the door. But thankfully, the lion went away.

Savannahs: Wide grassy plains with few trees.

Savannahs: Wide grassy plains with few trees.

Savannahs: Wide grassy plains with few trees.

Barbed-wire: Wire with short sharp points on it.

Barbed-wire: Wire with short sharp points on it.

Barbed-wire: Wire with short sharp points on it.

Persist: Continue to do something although other people oppose it.

persist: Continue to do something although other people oppose it.

persist: Continue to do something although other people oppose it.

alkaline: containing chemicals

alkaline: containing chemicals

alkaline: containing chemicals

horizon: The line far away where it seems to meet the sky.

horizon: The line far away where it seems to meet the sky.

horizon: the line far away where it seems to meet the sky.

quarter: a particular but unspecified area or person.

quarter: a particular but unspecified area or person.

quarter: a particular but unspecified area or person.

muzzle: The nose and mouth of an animal.

muzzle: The nose and mouth of an animal.

muzzle: The nose and mouth of an animal.

recovered his wits: was able to think clearly

again

recovered his wits: was able to think clearly

recovered his wits: was able to think clearly

again

boundless: having no limit or end

boundless: having no limit or end

boundless: having no limit or end

desolate: empty and sad looking

desolate: empty and sad looking

desolate: empty and sad looking

lurking: wanting to attack someone or something

lurking: wanting to attack someone or something

lurking: wanting to attack someone or something

sixth sense: special ability to know something without using the five ordinary senses.

sixth sense: special ability to know something

without using the five ordinary sense.

sixth sense: special ability to know something

without using the five ordinary senses.

groping: searching for something he could not see by feeling with his hands.

groping: searching for something he could not see by feeling with his hands.

groping: searching for something he could not see by feeling with his hands.

dazed: unable to think clearly.

dazed: unable to think clearly.

dazed: unable to think clearly.

rigid: stiff

rigid: stiff

rigid: stiff

rigid:

luminous: shining in the dark

luminous: shining in the dark

luminous: shining in the dark

cataclysm: a sudden disaster

cataclysm: a sudden disaster

cataclysm: a sudden disaster

lethal: able to cause death

lethal: able to cause death

lethal: able to cause death

godforsaken: far away from where people live

godforsaken: far away from where people live

godforsaken : far away from where people live