

WHAT I HAVE LEARNT.....

2. Why is service to mankind so sacred?

Ans- Service to mankind is so sacred because we get joy and self satisfaction by helping others.

3. Why should we serve people who are in need?

Ans- We should serve people who are in need because serving the poor and needy is one of the best ways of serving God.

4. To whom should we serve?

Ans- We should serve the poor and the needy people.

5. How can we serve the needy people?

Ans- We can serve the needy people then some food, clothes etc.

6. Why did children see the old women in the palace of the saint?

Ans- Children saw the old man-women in the palace of the saint and they realize their wrong deeds.

Teacher's Signature _____

Date _____

WHAT I HAVE LEARNT.....

7- Who carried the old women

Ans - The priest carried the old women

1. Parents and teachers are the real path finders of each individual. It's the care and guidance by mother in early age. In my case when I was 3 years old, I suffered my fever and dysentery. My mother kept me on her lap whole night with patience. It was my father who held hold my hand when I was just learning to walk. Before getting admission to my own school ODM Public School, My mother taught me ABCD of my life. The teacher in my school at BDA colony always always give me special care.

2. It was a cold winter, I with my father in the market to buy buy something for home. Suddenly an old woman shivering with the cold come to us and told "I was hungry since two days. Please give some food. My father took his hand to the ~~purse~~ purse, but I stopped him and to give some food to her. We went to the food stall and asked the woman what she would eat. As per her choice, the shopkeeper prepared a packet and we gave to her. She gave a smile with peace and pleasure. She gave us a blessing came home after marketing and I was thinking about her ~~the~~ family.

Teacher's Signature _____

Date _____