

1- Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar is called as father of the Indian constitution.

2- Preamble is an introduction to the constitution. It gives a brief description about the constitution.

3- The constitution of India gives its citizens certain fundamental rights. If anyone feels that his or her fundamental rights have been violated, he or she can approach a court of law.

4- The two political leaders who fought against untouchability are Dr B. R. Ambedkar and Mahatma Gandhi.

5- Our constitution made provisions to protect the weaker sections of the people against discrimination.

* The constitution gives various fundamental rights which means that no one can be discriminated against on the basis of their gender, caste, religion, race or economic status.

- The constitution has also given special concession to women in various fields, like reservation of 33% for women in parliament, education of girl child etc.