

My Mother

Mothers are next to god. It is a true saying. My mother is the greatest gift to me by god. She is medicine in sickness, source of inspiration in failure, food in hunger and comfort in pain. She is my first teacher. My mother is a great person for me.

The name of my mother is Rasmita panda. She is thirty four years old. She is an educated person. She is a house wife. She is very charming, polite and affectionate to all. She has cooking very tasty food.

My mother is very beautiful. She is fair and slim. She has long black hair. She has round face. She wears saree. My mother is very hard working. She usually gets up at five in the morning. She does exercise for half an hour.

and worships gods and goddess for a while. She prepares food and other delicious dishes for us.

She always teaches me how to be good. She is my best teacher. My mother helps me in my studies. She tells me stories before sleeping. She is the best teacher and best mother in my life. I love my mother so much! Thank you mother for every thing!