

4. Write paragraph on the 'Why-Why girl'.

A- The 'Why-Why Girl' name is Moyna. She is ten years old. She belongs to shabat community and the shabat community people eat snakes, they chop off the head, they sell the skin and then cook the meat.

Her mother's name is Khiri, her father had gone off to faraway Jamshedpur in search of work and her brother Goro, went to the forest every day to collect firewood. Everyone called 'Why-Why girl' to Moyna because she is very fond of questions. Moyna do the work of the village landlord's babies like tend goat, sheep etc. And she also study in the samiti. Maloti Devi was Moyna's samiti teacher. The shabat community people don't send their daughters work but Moyna go to work because Moyna's mother had bad leg.

At last Moyna is the teacher at the samiti and she is 18 years old now.

Moyna except from his student to ask questions. We learn from Moyna that 'Education is the most powerful weapon, by using we can change the world.'