

Ganesh Puja

Ganesh puja is a famous Hindu festival. This festival is celebrated in the month Bhadra-pada according to Hindu calendar. It is believed that Lord Ganesh was born on this day. Lord Ganesh is the son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati. Ganesh puja revived by freedom fighter Bal Gangadhar Tilak in the year 1893. Lord Ganesh is also known as "Vighne Harta", who destroys all the evils and troubles from his devotees life. During this festival people bring Ganapati idol in their homes and worshipping with full devotion. Various trusts and societies also set up bring pandas for worshipping Lord Ganesh. Devotees offer Durva grass, Modak, Laddus and puran poli to the Lord Ganesh.