

Dt 13.8.21
Hw

2. Tick (✓) the correct pronouns for the sentences below.

- (a) Did Disha meet (me/you) today?
- (b) I lost my pencil today. Preeti told (you/me) that I could use her pencil.
- (c) I know Arun gave (me/you) the book.
- (d) You should eat more fruits. It's good for (me/you).
- (e) I was waiting for Sai. He said he would meet (me/you) today.

Now, look at these sentences.

- Jiya helped him do the homework.*
- I gave her the book yesterday.*
- I liked the movie. We watched it yesterday.*

In these sentences, all the words in red are used to talk about a single person or thing.

We use the pronoun him to talk about a boy or a man. We use her to talk about a girl or a woman. The pronoun it is used for an animal or an object.