Some people conclude that political and social division should not be allowed to mix.

Ans- Yes, politics and social divisions should not be allowed to mix because the combination of the two can be very dangerous. This can be seen in the following ways:-

(i) Democracy involves competition among various political parties. This competition tends to divide the society. If they start competing in terms of some existing social divisions to political division. This political division lead to conflict, violence & even disintegration of a country. Ex-India.

(ii) If the rulers of a country are willing to share power and accommodate the reasonable demands of minority community, social divisions become less threatening. But if they try to suppress the demand the result will be explosive.
