Dear Diary,

How are you, hope you are well and hearty. That's good, but, diary do you know I am in not in a good frame of mind and do you know why? Because today was my test but you must be thinking why am I sad when I have already given the test, well the problem is that what I studied was just the opposite of what I should have studied and do you know why? Because I was the one who checked the test schedule wrong, I had prepared for the english test flawlessly and had read every bit-tit-bit point but to my bad luck, today was SST test. You know diary, when the teacher handed me the question paper. I thought that she made a mistake but That's when realization hit me and for a good number of seconds my mind became blank and I felt completely numb.

But when I looked at the question paper, I sighed in relief as I knew the answers of many questions. So ^{dear} diary now you must be thinking why am I sad then, right? So, yes actually there were many questions whose answer I didn't know so my test didn't go as good as I thought. So that's what I wanted to tell you that how my today's test day went ok. So Good night. diary. will again meet tomorrow.

Robint :)
