

Home Assignment

1. Why Permanent tissues are named so?
Permanent tissues are named so because these tissues are completely grown and have lost the ability of division. ~~are known~~

2. Write two diff. b/w meristematic & Permanent tissue

Meristematic Tissue

Meristematic tissues divide and differentiate to form the permanent tissue

Permanent tissue

Permanent tissues are completely grown & have lost the ability of division. ~~are known as permanent~~

WP

3 Write any four features of Parenchyma tissue.

The features of Parenchyma are:-

- Act as packing tissues b/w more specialised tissues
- Store food
- Metabolically active
- Intracellular air spaces allow gaseous exchange-