

- ⑧ A majority of the women have meagre education & low skill formation. That is why women are paid low compared to men.
- ⑨ Unemployment is said to exist when people who are willing to work at the going wages can't find jobs.

(10) Disguised Unemployment | Seasonal Unemployment

Disguised Unemployment exists where part of the labor force is either left without work or is working in a redundant manner where worker productivity is essential very much less

Seasonal Unemployment exists refer to a situation where a number of persons are not able to find job during some months of the year

- (11) → Much of the education is of low-quality & general in nature. It doesn't have vocation-specific component. Therefore it is irrelevant.
→ The rate at which white-collar jobs have been created in India is much less than the rate at which population & education have been increasing.
→ In the globalizing world, demand for high-skilled labour is fast increasing. There is no demand for persons with not so little skills. Our education system is mass producing this second category of persons.