

(60)

Home Assignment

Date

Page 70

(i)

"Beneath all uniforms" What uniforms do you think the poet is speaking about

The poet speaks about the various dresses that people various countries wear but beneath them, ~~all~~ the human body same

(ii)

How does the poet suggest that all people on earth are the same

The poet says that nobody is different & peculiar. No country is foreign. A single body breathes ~~breat~~ beneath all uniform. Moreover, the land is the same everywhere

2.

In stanza 1, find five ways in which we are alike. Pick out those words.

In the first stanza the poet says that there is no difference b/w the body of a citizen of our country & the citizen of another country. We have same kind of body; we wear same kind of clothes. We walk on the same planet, & the end of each individual is the same 3.

How many features can you find in stanza 2? Pick out the words?

In stanza 2, common features are sun, air, water, peaceful harvests required for human survival, same hands.

QW

Q7) "... whenever we are told to hate our brothers..."
When do you think this happens? Why? Who tells us? Should we do as we are told at such times? What does the poet say?

Sometimes some selfish people instigate the innocent to harm others. They do it for their own benefit. The common or ordinary man doesn't understand their tricks & start hating his fellow human beings. They tell them to cause riots. The poet says that one should not follow anybody's advice without brooding over it. The poet repeatedly says that there is no difference in them & the foreigners. The people of the entire world are the same.