

We should always give respect to our national symbols because the national symbols represent the history, culture, values and dreams of a nation and those who disrespects the national symbols is punishable according to the law of the country.