

(e)

one tree

three trees

H.W

4. Colour the odd one out. One is done for you.

- | | | | | |
|-----|--------------|---------|------------|---------------|
| (a) | dog | books | ants | cows |
| (b) | roses | pens | cat | eyes |
| (c) | chair | lamps | girls | parks |
| (d) | spoons | pigeons | dolls | pencil |
| (e) | egg | tree | fruits | apple |

Recap

- Singular naming words talk about only one person, animal, place or object. For example, boy, cat, room, bottle, etc.
- Plural naming words talk about more than one person, animal, place or object. For example, boys, cats, rooms, bottles, etc.