

Homework

Non communicable | Communicable

1) Non communicable diseases are that are not passed on from one person to another.

1) Communicable diseases are that can be passed on from one person to another.

to another.

2) Communicable diseases

2) Some non communicable diseases are night blindness, beriberi, scurvy, rickets or anaemia. a.

are spread by microbe or germs called bacteria, protozoa and viruses. These germs spread through coughing, sitting or sneezing.