

Writing junction

Gopal and Hari were walking down a dusty road. They were carrying an enormous brinjal under their shoulder. Suddenly, they were stopped by a king's guard in the middle of nowhere, near the palace of the king. The guard said to carry the brinjal and gift it to the king hari and gopal has no other way to follow the guard. Now the guard tried to check the freshness of the brinjal and received the biteing of thorns of brinjal. THE fool guard thought the brinjal thorn as a snake bite and ran away in fear. Now gopal and hari made a great laugh and went to their HOME. THE mothers of them them merrily made huge bangan bharta and distributed to the neighbours as a part of feast.

The end      thank you