

List out two differences between Monarchy and Democracy forms of government in the project record.

Monarchy	Democracy
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Monarchy is a form of govt. in which a person, the monarch, is the head of state for life or until abdication.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Democracy is a form of government in which the people have the authority to choose their government legislation.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• In a monarchy people are not considered as equals.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• People are considered equal in a democracy.

Democracy

- When a country is ruled by a Govt. elected by its people through elections, then it is called a Democracy.

Monarchy

- When a country is ruled by kings and Queens, when the right to rule a country is passed through a dynasty and not through elections, then it is called a monarchy.