

← climbing birds

- 1 Birds use the claws to catch and eat food, to protect themselves from their enemies and to move.
- 2 Some flesh eating birds like eagles have strong and sharp claws called talon.
- 3 Water birds like duck have webbed feet which helps them to swim.
- 4 Bird like woodpecker have two toes pointing upwards and two toes pointing downwards these toes help them to climb trees.