STORY NAME: The enormous binjal

So one day two twins name 'Gopal' and 'Hari' were walking down a dusty road. They were carrying an enormous brinjal ~~with~~ under their shoulders. Suddenly, they were stopped by a king's guard in the middle of nowhere. Then the king's guard looked at to the enormous brinjals that were under the shoulders of Hari and Gopal then ~~Hari~~ the king's guard asked to Gopal and Hari where they are taking this enormous brinjal with then ~~the~~ Hari and Gopal said that plz leave us to the guard then the gird got angry and said that in anger to Broopal and Hari that this enormous brinjhal belongs to a roy, royal garden means it belongs to kings garden. Then after that the gard said that for this enormous brinjhal the king was unhappy this these days and was tired to find this enormous brinjhal and seeing him tired and unhappy, I am in tension and I tried everything to make him happy but he didn't even give a smile and was more sad.

So after telling all those things the gard took the Gopal and Hari with the enormous brinjal to the king's court and said everything to king and then after listening to gard the king asked kindly to Gopal and Hari that why they have been stolen this enormous brinjal from his garden but suddenly in the middle the gard inter fear and asked to king that why he is talking kindly to Gopal and Hari so the ~~king~~ king said that they are kids so that's why I am talking so kindly to them.

Then the king telled to the gard to not to interfere them. Gopal and Hari said that ~~that~~ they are orphans and the caretaker of them is not keeping good care of them and money send by you our king is not used for our health and care the ^{caretaker takes all the} money ~~the~~ the for himself only and gives us the un-fresh food to us and because of that many kids got sick and died so after that we got news from somebody that in a garden there was enormous brinjal so we decided to steal it and cook it and give fresh to food to the orphans near our friends and we know how to cook but we ~~saw~~ ^{promised} ~~and~~ ^{swear} that we don't know that ^{was} your garden. Then the king got angry and in anger he ~~telled~~ ^{ordered} the he guards to bring the caretaker here and when the ~~care~~ caretaker came to the court of King the ^{king} ~~scolded~~ him the caretaker for his foolish mistake he said that, I believed you but you lied me that ~~you~~ you offer the kids fresh homemade food, and take thier good of their studies and etc.

Then he ^{punished} ~~punished~~ the caretaker as lie and ~~and~~ the ^{the} orphans were happy with the other good caretaker, And here the story ends and the moral of the story is that we should never broke anybody's believe like the caretaker broke the kings believe and got in trouble.
