

05/01/22

H/w ch-12

- Early on winter mornings

we see drops of water on parked cars and plants. Why?

[Write ans in your note book.]

01/01/22

H/w Ch-12

Ans. Early in the mornings of winter we see drops of water ~~in~~ on cars or plants because of the process called condensation.

Condensation is a process where atmosphere get condensed to water droplets due to rise in as the sun starts rising.

And ^{this} the tiny drops of water are called dew drops.