

Five Migratory Birds

Page No. _____
Date _____

Siberian cranes are found in Arctic Tundra of Russia. They migrate in winter season to various parts of world such as China, Iran and India (Generally located in Bharatpur, Rajasthan)

Greater Flamingo are found in Africa and Asia. During colder times, they migrate to warmer places like India, Iran etc. They like to reside in salty water bodies

Cuckoos are generally found in Australia and New Zealand. They migrate to warmer places such as African and Asian region for breeding in winter time. They generally fly over the water surface (across oceans, sea, etc)

Five Migratory Birds

Page No.

Date

The Amur Falcon lives in European Region. They are one of the smallest migratory bird who travel through Asian region to warmer places in Africa.

The Bluethroat are the migratory birds found in North European countries. In winter time they travel to warmer places in Gulf countries. They have a special characteristics of having the throat blue in colour.

Teacher's Signature