

H.W
2020

Why icebergs are dangerous for ships?

Ans:- The icebergs floats on water with 10% of its volume above the water and 90% below the water. Since, The large part of iceberg is submerged under water, It becomes difficult for the sailor of the ship to estimate the size and position of iceberg. This results the chance of danger for the ship to collide with the iceberg anytime.