

1. What is Lymph? Is it necessary?

Sol: A lymph is present in the lymph vessels and the lymphatic organs. It is transported by the lymph vessels which run alongside the blood vessels of the circulatory system.

2. Differentiate between lymph and blood.

Sol: ★ A lymph is present in the lymph vessels.

★ It is transported by the lymph vessels which run alongside the blood vessels of the circulatory system.

★ Blood is present in the heart and the blood vessels.

★ ~~FB~~ The blood is transported by the lymph vessels which run alongside the blood vessels to all parts of the body by ~~the~~ the heart through the blood vessels.

1. Why is vegetative reproduction named so?