It was a heavenly place. We travelled to the peak of mountain Kailashgiri, through a bus. Me and my family went there with excitement filled in our mind. The mountain was cut into rounds where transport went by. We went to the highest peak of the mountain and took photos of each other. It was a great time. My mother's colleagues and her director also went with us. We visited other places there but didn't find any beautiful view except the top. We ate there, the food was delicious. I wish I could visit that place again. I'll definitely visit it after this pandemic gets over.
