Q: Give reasons why:

a) the speaker disliked shopping in town.

Ans- The speaker finds it terrible to shop in the town as many cars are parked there and there is no space for his car to fit in except the fire station entrance.

b) the author thought "Arthur" was a silly name for a dog.

Ans- the author thought that "Arthur" is a very common name in human beings barely suits the dog.

c) The speaker said "it took quite a bit of courage to turn round and go back?" ✓

Ans- The author didn't want to go to the police station so he took up some courage and turned back in search of his car. But unfortunately found nothing.

d) the speaker's wife was upset with him.

Ans- The speaker's wife ordered him to bring the items before one o'clock but it was already twenty past two when he got home. She became even more upset when she went down to get the items as there was nothing but a bale of hay in the boat and they realised that it was not their car, rather it was the farmer's.
