The peace treaty at Versailles with the Allies ~~was~~ was a harsh and humiliating peace! Justify.

"The peace treaty at Versailles with the Allies was a harsh and humiliating peace." As other countries were also ~~not~~ participating in First world war. But the loss had to be faced only by Germany.

The loss that Germany faced are :-

- * Germany lost its overseas colonies, a tenth of its population, 13 percent of its territories, 75 percent of its iron and 26 percent of its coal to France, Poland, Denmark, Lithuania.
- * The Allied Powers demilitarised Germany to weaken its power.
- * The war Guilt Clause held Germany responsible for the war and damages the Allied countries suffered.
- * Germany was forced to pay compensation amounting to £ 6 billion.
- * The allied armies also occupied the resource-rich Rhineland for much of the 1920s.
