

Q) What does the Constitution say with regard to equality? Why do you think it is important for all people to be equal?

ans) The Indian Constitution has granted the Right to justice and equality to all the citizens of the country. Nobody can be discriminated on the basis of caste, religion, ~~cast~~ class or gender. All people are given the equal rights and opportunities because all are equal against the constitution.

It is important for all people to be equal because then only the country can progress. The principle of equality is not only to ensure the personality of individual but also to <sup>ensure</sup> provide equal rights and opportunities ~~to~~ and growth of an individual. This in turn benefits the nation.

2) a) I would try to convince my friend that being a poor is not a crime nor a matter of laughter. Hence, he/she should not tease his/hers classmate. In stead, he/she should take care ~~of~~ her.

b) I would stop him ~~her~~ to do that and convince him by ~~making~~ making him understand <sup>he</sup> that all ~~that~~ religious communities ~~have~~ have.

should not make fun of

- c) I would advise my classmates to be friendly and treat ~~one~~ all equally without discriminating them on the basis of their caste, religion or class.
- d) I would not get involved in the joke and would proceed from their immediately.
- e) I would try to convince those boys that girls are in no way less efficient than ~~the~~ the boys. They are equal and they shouldn't ~~dis~~ discriminate them on the basis of their gender.