

2) ans) The most striking feature of the Indus valley civilisation was the well-planned nature of its cities. Cities of this civilisation show that people had a good knowledge of town planning and they were good architects.

- The cities were divided into two parts. One part was at a higher level, it was built on a massive platform constructed of baked brick. Archaeologists call this area the citadel or acropolis. The citadel is surrounded by huge walls.
- The lower part of the city consisted of the houses of the common people.
- The town planners of those times had made straight roads crossing each other at right angles and thus dividing the city into blocks.

2) ans Religions:- The figures of Mother Goddess and the Seals representing a male figure sitting in the form of Yogi, a figure like a mother goddess and pipal trees tell us a little about the faith of the people.

- The seals indicate that the people prayed to the bull, the peepal tree and the Pashupati (Shiva).
