

- We use the pronoun we in place of the name of more than one person including ourselves.

Examples:

Ravi and I are brothers. We go to the same school.

Seema and I are sisters. We are from Hyderabad.

- We use the pronoun they in place of the name of more than one person. They is used to talk about others.

Examples:

Tony and Tina have a pet dog. They play with their dog.

Amit and Neha live near school. They walk to school every day.

- H.W
8.11.2021
3. Read the sentences. Choose the correct pronouns and fill in the blanks.

- (a) Kunal and I are best friends. We (They/We) go to school together.
- (b) Susan and Manmeet are healthy. They (They/We) eat apples every day.
- (c) Priya and Sonu are in the park. They (They/We) are playing football.
- (d) The children are in the library. They (They/We) are reading books.
- (e) Amit and I are neighbours. We (They/We) help each other.

Recap

Pronouns are words that are used in place of naming words. For example, Ravi is my cousin. He is from Hyderabad.