

10/5/24
CW

Constitutional laws -

- Constitutional law is a body of rules, laws, practices and doctrine that govern all political communities. It consist of several fundamental rights which are necessary for people. It gives an idea about a whole country or a whole state. About all fundamental rights and responsibility that citizen of India should follow.

- Right to Equality
- Right to Freedom
- Right to Education.
- Right against exploitation.
- (etc)