

- lines of latitude circle the globe in an east-west direction. These lines are also called as parallel lines.

- latitudes measure how far north or south point ~~lies~~ lies from the equator.
- The equator is at zero degree latitude which ~~sepa~~ separates earth's northern and southern hemisphere.
- lines of latitude and longitude together form a grid which help ~~is~~ in locating ~~an~~ accurate location.