Stanza 1

⇒ The first stanza depicts the picture of a panther locked in a cage of a zoo. The cage has iron bars because of being fixed he can't see anything. To him, there is no world behind the cage.

Stanza. 2

⇒ When he moves round and round the cage frequently, it looks as though he is performing a ritual dance. The panther inside the cage of the zoo has a powerful desire to go out because he feels paralyzed and arrested.
