

1/5/9

Home work

1) Testosterone is the hormone responsible for secondary sexual characteristics that develop in male during adolescence. It stimulates spermatogenesis.

2) Changes in Boys

- * Hair growth on face, chest, armpits, legs, pubic region and arms.

- * Larynx enlarges voice deepens.

- * Body becomes muscular

→ changes in girls.

- * Enlargement of pelvic region and fat deposition on ~~but~~ hips and thigh region

- * voice becomes sweet.