

Home Assignment

Paripentrat :

1. Disciple

The disciple was simple like his guru but he was also greedy. He follows and listens to his guru. But this time he didn't listen to him. One day they found a kingdom of fools, where people work at night and sleep at sunrise. There the cast was same as before. He became greedy and stayed back when the guru was to go to the place because they didn't know what will be the next fool'sness. He ate bananas, rice etc. & became a fat man. When he was in trouble, he ~~re~~ recalled his guru in his thoughts & then behaved according to the plan devised by him.

2. The King

The king is the main fool in the story. He had done innovative things to figure himself different from others. He turned the day to night and night to day. He didn't have ~~words~~ words of judgement and justice. He made the thief's brother innocent. Justice made for him. He didn't see the guru flatterings and fooling him to save his disciple. His gullible disposition led him to believe every word.

uttered by the guru and ended up getting executed by his own men. He didn't recognize the guru was fooling him for his own life to be saved. The king was the great and main fool character of this story.

3) Merchant

The merchant was clever & shrewd. When the king said the reason of calling him, he agreed that and fooled the king by putting the blame on the bricklayer that he had made ~~it~~ ~~or~~ ~~weak~~ ~~was~~ constructed a weak layer. ~~Utter~~ Then the cycle of allegation continued.

At last when the fault came back to him, he made another excuse that the house was made in his father's time, so he is the person to be punished. But he was died so the king punished him, behalf of his father. ~~He was~~

4) Thief's brother

The thief and his brother went to stole things. They found the merchant's house. At that time the wall fell on thief's head & he was killed. His brother wanted justice so he went to the king's court. He hide his identity that they were thief and complained against the owner of the house.