

(1) Women's rights in Saudi Arabia have been limited in comparison to the rights of women in many of its neighboring countries.

(2) A series of social and economic reforms have to witnessed regarding women 15 nights.

③ Women in Saudi Arabia constituted 33.2% of the native work force as of 2017.

④ of ahead from 13% of the country native.

⑤ Since, Mohammed bin
Salman was appointed Crown prince in 2017.

⑥ It was widely criticised by the International Community.

(7) The kingdom was criticized by the ~~to~~ ranked 147th out of 58 countries.

(8) World Economic Forum's global gender gap report.

(9) Women are criticized by International Community.