

Oral Questions

Choose the correct answer.

1. When the wind blows gently, it is called a (breeze / storm). ✓
2. Cloudy nights are (warmer / cooler). ✓
3. The part of the earth on which the rain falls becomes (warm / cool). ✓ never too much rain can cause floods. Floods can be caused by heavy rain or melting snow.

3. Does weather affect what we eat? Give an example.

E. In the diagram shown below write the missing words on the blanks.

