Dear diary,

Today I went to market for buying groceries. I saw a beggar she was a small girl I went towards her to I realized that she had lost her parents. I felt bad for her and I decided to find her parents to make her happy. but still I couldn't find her parents. I thought to keep her in orphan and give her proper food and clothes to wear. I would definitely help her in anyway. I have arranged a place in orphanage and she is happy there. Hope for the best.

Thank you diary

Meghanshi.
