Dear Diary,

How are you, hope you are well and hearty. That's good but, diary do you know I am in not in a good frame of mind and do you know why? Because today was my test but you must be thinking why am I sad when I have already given the test, well the problem is that what I should have studied and do you know why? Because I was the one who checked the test schedule wrong. I had prepared for the english test ~~schedule wrong~~ flawlessly and had read every tit-bit point but to my bad luck, today was SST test. You know diary when the teacher handed me the question paper I thought that she made a mistake but that's when realization bit me and for a good ~~no~~ number of seconds my mind became blank and I felt completely numb.

But when I looked at the question paper, I sighed in relief as I know the answers of many questions. So diary now you must be thinking why am I sad then, right? So yes, actually there were many questions whose answers I didn't know so my test didn't go as good as I thought. So that's what I wanted to tell you that how my today's test day went. OK so, Good night diary. We'll again meet tomorrow.

Roban 😊
