

H.W.

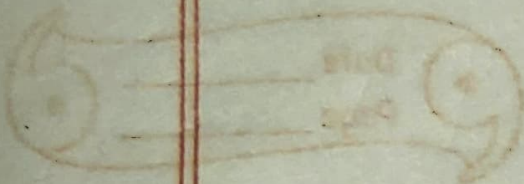

1. Differentiate political and permanent executive.
Ans. Political executive | Permanent executive

- | | |
|--|---|
| i, They are appointed by the people, so they are responsible to the people. | i, The govt. appoints them to serve under the political executive branch. |
| ii, They are the lawmakers and policymakers. | ii, They are in charge of changing the govt's policies. |
| iii, People elect them, and they can be replaced by people during the next election. | iii, They are permanent and stay in power even though the ruling party changes. |
| iv, With each change in government, there is a change in the environment. | iv, They are unaffected by changes in government. |

2. Describe the powers of the President.

Ans. The powers of the President are:

- i, Executive powers
- ii, Legislative powers
- iii, Diplomatic powers
- iv, Military powers

-
- v, Financial Powers
 - vi, Ordinance Making Powers
 - vii, Emergency Powers
 - viii, Pardonning Power
 - ix, Veto Power