

Tiger

1) What is happening to the tiger family?

A) The tiger family is being hunted and its numbers are reducing.

2) What have the poachers used Sheru's skin and bones for?

A) The poachers ground Sheru's bone to powder which would be used in some Chinese medicine.

3) What powers do people think tiger bones have?

A) People think that the bones of the tiger would cure a sick man and bring him back to life.

4) According to the speaker, whose souls are sick?

A) According to the speaker, the souls of the people killing the tigers are sick. He calls them sick because they are killing a beautiful animal just the experiment with its skin and bones in order to ~~so~~ satisfy their own greed.

5) Why does the speaker say the tiger's black and gold won't shimmer now?

A) The speaker says the tiger's black and gold won't shimmer now because it is not alive anymore.

1) Why do you think the tiger's skin is hanging on someone's wall? Why have they displayed it?

A) The tiger's skin is hanging on someone's wall as a show piece. Tiger's skin is illegally sold at extremely high price and those who own it consider it to be an object of pride. They display their wealth and prosperity by hanging the tiger's skin on their walls.

2) Read these lines aloud

Tyger Tyger, burning bright

In the forest of the night

A) William Blake's poem The tyger, <sup>highlighted</sup> glorifies the animal Darwala's poem Tiger, talks about the misery of the majestic animal. He moans for tigers The tiger, according to him is no longer the hunter, but has become the hunted, it has been a picture and killed by humans. His poem expresses the plight of the tiger now.

Part Using words

A) The stripes of gold and black on the tiger skin are compared to the golden colour of dawn and to the darkness of night

B) My friend Manoj is such a clown!

A) Manoj is funny like a clown

2) Larissa is a walking dictionary.

A) Larissa is as knowledgeable as a dictionary

3) My sister is an angel.

A) My sister is innocent like an angel

4) The clouds are balls of cotton.

A) The clouds are white like balls of cotton.

3) Life is one long and exciting journey.

A) Life is exciting and adventurous just like a trip or a journey.

Appreciating the poem

1) Which line has been repeated in the poem?

Why?

A) The line, 'the tiger isn't burning, burning'

has been repeated in the poem for emphasis effect. TH

poet tries to emphasise the plight the endangered animal by repeating the line twice.

- 2) In one image of the tiger, it is shown as the king of the forest. Might & and ~~power~~ powerful, his roar would scare all the birds and animals away in fear. His fur would shimmer in stripes of gold and black as if it was burning like fire. His beautiful skin is now s wipped be used as a lifeless ornament on someone's wall. His bones are being powdered to make chies medicine