

possession to him.

5) Do you think the narrator's father did the right thing or was he foolish? Give a reason for your answer.

A) Yes, because honesty is the best. If he does not give the car all will know what he is a thief.

B) Do you like the ending of the story? Why/why not?

A) The ending of the story is good because the family is leaving a good way.

Q Why was it so important for the narrator ^{to possess a car?}
2A) Not possessing a car was the most disgraceful thing for the narrator. Every family in New York had cars but only for the narrator's the felt quite ashamed of this and desperately needed a car to maintain his existence in society

3Q How did the narrator's joy turn out ^{to} be short-lived?

2A) The narrator never as his lavish dream had ever thought of possessing a Buick. But when his father's name was announced to be the lottery he was over excited. He immediately understood that his joy is not going to stay for long.

4Q Explain what the narrator means when he says, "I know now we were never richer than we were at the moment when Dad made that telephone call"?

A) According to the narrator's mother possessing a good character was equivalent to being wealthy so, when the father discovered that the winning ticket was purchased on behalf of ~~the~~ Kendrick the boss, he decided to handover the prize

A) The old woman is referred as the writer

B) 1) What work did Moyra do for the landlords and why did she do it?

A) Moyra catch all the snake to earn money.

Q) Why did Moyra not want to thank the Babu?

A) Moyra not want to thank the Babu because she do many work for him.

3) Do you admire ~~Mog~~ Moyra? Why not? How according to you should a person interact with a girl like moyra

A) No, because she always ~~she~~ she tells "why", according to Moyra someone who know all the answer of moyra's answer

The night we won the Buick

1A) The narrator's family ~~to~~ was indeed quite poor.

It was the only family in New York who did not own a car. The family used a small two wheeled basket cart for their daily chores. All these clearly stated the family is poor.

"Why, why girl"
Rev-1

1) a) Who is Khiri? Who is she talking about?

A) Khiri is the mother of Monya. She is talking about Monya.

b) Why does she call the person obstinate?

A) She call the person obstinate because ~~Monya~~ Monya always ask "why".

c) What was the narrator's opinion about her?

A) The narrator's opinion Monya that she wants to learn more.

Why not? It's a big hut. How much space does one women needs

a) Who speaks the above lines to whom?

A) The writer saw the above lines to Monya.

b) Why does say so?

A) She say so because when Monya tell all his problems then the speakers tell that.

c) Who is referred to as old woman?