

The most significant invention by man was designed and developed by J.L. Baird in 1927. It is a smart appliance that is used for viewing content all around the world. Television is a popular medium of enjoyment. It provides entertainment for the whole family. We can enjoy cinema, a football or cricket match, news, serials and many other programs. TV is now very popular. It is found almost in every home.