

History

What young
A1. The soldiers celebrated Christmas together and that too without any approval B. It was the first time in the history of war that enemy sides joined to the other.

1. The line 'two national singing the same Carol in the middle of the war' tells us that even if the soldiers were fighting on

3. The English and the German soldiers played football.

B.1. The war the first time can impress us by winter because neither of the two sides had reached an agreement nor had one side had reached an agreement & nor had one side secured a clear victory over the other.

Ans key

Q1. Get going

1. The soldiers celebrated Christmas together and that too, without any approval
2. It was the first time in the history of war that enemy sides joined to the other
3. The line 'two national singing the Sammie Carol in the middle of the war' tells us that even if the soldiers were fighting on
3. The English and the German soldiers played football.

B-1. The war the first time can impasse by winter because neither of the two sides had reached an agreement nor had one side had reached an agreement nor had one side secured a clear victory over the other.