

- a. Beijing is China's capital and Tokyo is Japan's. - is Primary auxiliary
- b. Ravi carried his phone with him. He cleans - main verb
- c. He cleans his cupboard every Saturday.
cleans main verb
4. He has some cookies and a loaf of bread for the Journey - has - linking verb
5. I read three books last week. They were so interesting = read - main
6. What have you been doing all this teaching math = read.

This morning a cat got stuck in our tree. Dad said Right

May the sins of your previous birth be burned away tonight they said May you suffering where else the virus appeared on the side walk with a bucket of white wash and a long-handled brush

He surveyed the fence and all glorious left him and so deep melancholy settled down upon his

He took up his brush and went tranquilly to work. Ben Rogers have in sight presently the very boy we were the only family were we the only family in our new York town that didn't own a car now daily on ancient Shetland Point that my mother had named Berkis after the character in David Copperfield the following number For poor we were my father

H-2

English

- a. Beijing is China's capital and Tokyo is Japan's. - is Primary auxiliary
- b. Ravi carried his phone with him. He cleans - main verb
- c. He cleans his cupboard every Saturday. cleans main verb
4. He has some cookies and a loaf of bread for the journey - has - linking verb
5. I read three books last week. They were so interesting = read - main
6. What have you been doing all this teaching math = read.