This is the map of France. Paris is the capital of the France. There are five important rivers: The Seine, the Loire, the Garonne, the Rhône & The Rhin. The Seine traverses through the city of Paris. The main mountains of France are the Pyrenees in the southwest, the Alps in the southeast. The neighboring countries of France are Belgium & England to the north; in East Germany, Switzerland and Italy. South - Spain in the West, there is the Atlantic Ocean. The Channel separates France from England. France is known for its cheeses (Camembert, Brie, Neuchâtel) cuisine and its perfumes (Chanel, Christian Dior, Polo, Rabanne etc).
