

C/W
17/01/21

Assessment

(1) Political Executive

* They are appointed by the people, so they are responsible to the people.

* They are the lawmakers and policymakers.

* People elect them, and they can be replaced during the next election.

* With each change in government, there is a change in the environment.

Permanent Executive

* The government appoints them to serve under the political executive branch.

* They are in charge of changing the government's policies.

* They are permanent and stay in power even through the ruling party changes.

* They are unaffected by changes in government.

(2) The Power President are:-

* Veto bills and sign bills.

* Make treaties with the approval of the Senate.

* Enforce the laws that Congress passes.

* Act as commander-in-chief during a war.

* Call out troops to protect our nation against an attack.

* Represent our nation in talks with foreign countries.