Dear Seema,

I hope you are fine there and enjoying. We are also fine here and we are waiting for you from when you have been gone for your studies.

Yesterday my birthday had gone and we are waiting for you by my father had told me that you will not come because of your exams. But I am very much happy on that you have send me a best gift for me that is my favorite write basketball, you have not forget my likes and dislikes.

Thank you for your gift and get back set home because we are missing you very much.

Yours lovingly

Mohit
